Ordinary Time in the Liturgical Year

While the word "ordinary" in popular usage is used to describe things that are nondescript or dull, ordinary rather means customary, regular, and orderly. Ordinary Time may also be called Ordinal Time, which means numbered time. Ordinal comes from the Latin "ordinalis," which is a word meaning "showing order, denoting an order of succession." Hence, Ordinary Time is the standard, orderly, counted time outside of the other liturgical seasons. There is nothing "dull" about Ordinary Time!

What is Ordinary Time?

Ordinary time is the longest liturgical season in the church year, encompassing either 33 or 34 weeks each year. Because other liturgical seasons begin or end with movable feasts, the length of Ordinary time can vary slightly; however, 33 weeks is the more common length. The weeks are numbered, e.g., the first Sunday of Ordinary Time, the second Sunday of Ordinary Time, and so on.

The liturgical color (the color of the cloths on the chancel in the front of the church on Sundays) of Ordinary Time is green; however, other appropriate colors may be used on various Sundays such as those Sundays we celebrate Holy Communion; at which time the liturgical color is white.

Season after Epiphany or Ordinary Time after the Baptism

The period of Ordinary Time used to be referred to as the Season after Epiphany. That title and the sometimes-used titles "Season after the Baptism" or "Ordinary Time after the Baptism" are still used in identifying the time period by some churches.

While the Epiphany and the Baptism are celebrated on separate days, the two descriptions (after Epiphany and after the Baptism) are not contradictory. Epiphany is celebrated on the first Sunday after January 1 and the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated the following Sunday.

This period of Ordinary Time lasts until the day before Ash Wednesday, which is Shrove Tuesday. This portion of Ordinary Time focuses on the childhood of Jesus and then on the public ministry of Christ.

Season after Pentecost or Ordinary Time after Pentecost

The second portion of Ordinary Time begins after Pentecost and is much longer than the first. This second period of Ordinary Time lasts from the day after Pentecost through the final day before Advent. Because this portion of Ordinary Time occurs after the celebrations of Jesus's Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension, this segment of Ordinary Time is focused on the Age of the Church. The Age of the Church is the age we live in now, the time that exists between the Age of the Apostles and the second and last coming of Christ for which we are preparing. This period of Ordinary Time is also focused on Christ's reign as King of kings; Christ the King Sunday caps off the season of Ordinary Time as the final Sunday before Advent begins.

So, as you can see, even though we are now in "Ordinary Time" and traditionally focus our attention on the Age of the Church, there is nothing ordinary about that. The Age of the Church is anything but ordinary! This age of ours presents challenges as well as opportunities for the church to work and witness in the name of Christ that were inconceivable just a generation ago. We live in an amazing time. Some of the dynamics at play are amazingly wonderful and some are amazingly frightening. But in and through all this, know that our God is a faithful God who is there through the power of the Holy Spirit to lead and guide his people through all times and in all places.

So be it for us!

Shalom,
JER

Deacons

Thank You

Thank you to everyone who purchased our Mother's Day flower baskets from the Deacons. Your participation made the sale a success, and we hope you are enjoying your beautiful flowers. The money realized from the sale will be used to help local people who need some extra assistance.

Gift Card Donations

The Deacons would like to thank everyone who continues to donate to Alice's CUP Food Pantry on our Communion Sundays. The pantry always needs cereal, beets, sauerkraut, soap for dishes, soap for clothes, and personal items (toothpaste, shampoo).

For those of you that would rather buy the SHOPRITE cards and donate to the pantry, the Deacons use these cards to purchase Parmalat milk and extra cereal for the pantry.

It is a blessing to our neighbors that we support them in their time of need. Thank you.

Worship Team

The first half of the Christian year runs from Advent through Pentecost and during this period we remember the entire life of Jesus Christ and his saving grace. Beginning immediately after Pentecost we enter a period that is referred to as Ordinary Time, which is really not ordinary at all!

“With all the big holidays and celebrations over, Ordinary Time offers us the space to find our place in God’s story. We’ve celebrated and taken in the momentous life of Jesus; now we need a long stretch of days to absorb and assimilate it. In Ordinary Time, we fully take in the gospel, allowing it to take shape in our daily living, making connections between Jesus’ story and our lives.

Ordinary doesn’t mean boring or second rate, but simply every day. The Christian faith is not an otherworldly faith; it is about this creation, your life, these days. Ordinary Time gives us space to consider all the implications of God’s salvation in Jesus Christ for our day by day, week-in, week-out lives. As such it is a time of listening to the story of God’s people. It’s a time to walk through the history of God’s salvation in Israel and the church.”

(Seeking God’s Face: Praying with the Bible Through the Year – written and compiled by Philip F. Reinders)

So, let us spend these months of summer and early fall reflecting on who we are as Christ’s own.

Also, a reminder that we are asking everyone to remember to bring a CUP pantry food donation on the first and third Sundays of the month! One thing that is always, always needed and much appreciated is cereal—I am told that this item literally flies off the shelves. Wouldn’t it be cool to fill the shelves for a week from our congregation!

Mission & Outreach Corner

Soles4Souls

On Sunday, June 12th, we will begin a month-long shoe drive, with a special worship service – Walking in the Footsteps of Jesus. During this service, we will have two offerings. The second offering will be a walk-up offering, where you can leave your shoe donations at the Chancel. If you feel called to also leave the shoes you are wearing as an offering that day, please feel free to do so!

Soles4Souls accepts all types of new and gently worn shoes including: athletic, running, dress, sandals, pumps, heels, work boots, cleats, dance and flip flops. Please tie or rubber band each pair together. In addition to the shoes you donate on June 12th, please continue to bring additional shoes (from family, friends, neighbors and co-workers) throughout the month of June.

Thank you for supporting this important ministry to those in need, both here in the USA and around the world.

School Supplies

During July and August, the Mission & Outreach Team will be collecting school supplies for children in our area. The Team will share more about this soon. Watch for announcements in the Sunday bulletin or on the Mission & Outreach board located in the Narthex.

Mission Trip

As many of you may remember, last year Judie Nicol participated in a mission trip to North Carolina that was organized by Classis Missions and sponsored by Churches Improving Communities (CIC). The group helped make repairs to homes damaged by recent Hurricanes.

This year, Judie has decided to venture a little further – to Haiti. The church that Judie's daughter attends decided to organize a mission trip to Haiti and Judie jumped at the chance to join them. They will be leaving on Saturday, June 25th, and returning on Saturday, July 2nd.

After months of preparing, which included fingerprinting and background checks, those who have signed up for this important ministry finally got to meet and share a Haitian dinner together on Saturday, May 21st. The group of about 35 to 40 people, ages 12 and up, got to know each other by spending part of the evening on team building exercises. Each participant was given a journal for memorializing their trip. Judie is going to take lots of pictures and will be sharing her experience in the next issue of this newsletter.

Please keep Judie, and all of the other members of the group, in your prayers.

Serving in Thailand

The Need

Although there has been a Christian presence in Thailand for 180 years, less than 1% of the Thai population confesses Jesus Christ as Lord.

Rawee and Julakun Bunupuradah's Ministry

Rawee and Julakun serve alongside Thai pastors and other church leaders. Helping them (1) train members of their congregations to reach their communities with the good news of Jesus Christ, and (2) train the next generation of Christian leaders in Thailand.

Prayer Requests

Please pray:

- That the impact of the gospel would increase in Thailand (Col. 1:6).
- That the Bunupuradahs would grow ever deeper in their love for God (Phil. 1:9-10).
- For God's provision for the Bunupuradahs' physical and spiritual needs (Phil. 4:19).
- For the Bunupuradahs to be light and salt to those around them (Matt. 5:13-14).

What Jesus Said His Followers Should Do

Be a Light in the World

Matthew 5:16 “In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.”

Love Your Enemies

Matthew 5:43-44 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.”

Do Unto Others

Matthew 7:12 “So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.”

The Greatest Commandment: Love God and Your Neighbor

Matthew 22:37-40 Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Be a Servant to Others

Mark 10:45 “For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Books We Have Read and Recommend

“Having a Mary Hearth in a Martha World” by Joanne Weaver.

A beautiful walk through the story of Mary and Martha and their relationship with Jesus, their friend, and how it relates to our everyday walk through our lives with our dearest friend, Jesus.

“Reaching Out” by Henri J. M. Nouwen.

A writing about the three movements of the spiritual life – from loneliness to solitude, from hostility to hospitality, and from illusion to prayer.

Praying God’s Word

Prayer for Transformation based on Psalm 51:10-12

Heavenly Father,
my heart is not what it should be –
please take the broken pieces,
the hard-heartedness, the lack of love,
and change it. I want a heart like yours.
If there is any unconfessed sin,
please make me aware of it
so that I can confess it.
I don’t want it to keep me from having a close relationship with You.
Through your Holy Spirit, help me to find joy in your gift of salvation and help me to be obedient to your will for my life.
In Jesus’ name, Amen.
